NO WAY! THE HANS REY STORY

This documentary tells the story of Hans Rey, who is widely considered the pioneer of extreme mountain biking. We follow his story from a small town in Southern Germany to his current homes in California and Tuscany and in the process learn how a boy with a bike and a dream made his way into Mountain Biking's Hall of Fame.

Lots of classic historical footage shot over two decades, interviews with Hans, Lopes, Peaty, Zap, Super T, Gary Turner, Tomac, Schley and more.

Produced and directed by Diana Graber of MGP and narrated by Competitor Magazine's Bob Babbitt.
